WE the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwal, Your Majesties very Dutiful Subjects, are very sensible of the Loss this your Nation hath sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William the Third, who (under God) had done great Things for us, and therefore we cannot too much express our Sorrow for the same.

But when we consider Your Majesties Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, and that Your Majesty hath given your People such early Assurances of the Preservation of our Religion, and the Laws and Liberties of your Country, and to Maintain the Crown in the Protestant Line, and the Government in Church and State, as it is by Law established; and to continue such Alliances as may oppose the great Power of France, and to pursue the true Interest of England, our Spirits revive; and we most heartily pray Almighty God for Your Majesties happy and long Reign, and that he will bless Your Majesty with a Royal Progeny of Children to sway the Scepter of Your Majesties Realms for all succeeding Generations: And we most heartily beg leave, on this occasion, to assure Your Majesty, That we will, in our several Stations, to the very utmost, and according to our best Abilities, Defend and Support Your Majesties most Sacred Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown, as it is by Law established, against the pretended Prince of Wales, *and all other your Enemies and Opposers whatsoever. Your Majesty hath been graciously pleas'd to assure us, That you come Entirely English to the Crown; which Declaration of your Royal Mouth raises an unspeakable Joy within us; For what Blessing may not that Nation promise it self, where both Prince and People know no separate Interest, but prosecute unanimously the Common Good, and That alone?

In return to these Gracious Favours, we humbly desire Your Majesty to accept these Assurances of our constant Fidelity and Obedience, with our unfeigned Resolutions, to defend Your Majesties Person, and maintain your most undoubted Right to the Crown of your Royal Ancestors, against all Opposers whatsoever, and particularly the Pretended Prince of Wales, this supported by a King, whose Forwardness and Presumption in disposing of Kingdom's we hope, is reserv'd to be reduc'd by you, as a part of the Glories of your Reign.

May the concurrent Obedience of all your Subjects, which is as much our Happiness as it is our Duty, make Your Majesties Reign over us secure and Easy; And when, having Triumph'd over all your Enemies, you shall, after a long Reign in Peace, lay down your Earthly Crown, may it be in Exchange for an Eternal Weight of Glory.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

HAD not our Loss, by the Death of that truly great and excellent Prince, William the Third, our late King, been so very extraordinary, the suddenness of it so surprising, and our sense of it so very quick and afflicting, (he being the Person, (under God) to whom we owe the Enjoyment of our Religion, and our Civil Rights and Liberties) and had we not been encouraged by Your Majesties repeated Mention of your real Concern for so great a Misfortune in these Kingdoms, we dare not have ventured to intermix our Sorrow upon that Occasion, with our hearty and sincere Congratulations of your most Sacred Majesty upon your happy and quiet Accession to the Crowns, which we esteem to be Your Majesties undoubted Right, and which we heartily pray may long flourish upon your Royal Head.

We always thought our selves extreamly happy, in the knowledge we ever had, of Your Majesties hearty and unalterable Affections to the Protestant Religion, and our Civil Constitution; for which we cannot forget what great Hazards you formerly run, and for the Preservation whereof, you have so undertaken the Government of these Kingdoms in a time of so much Danger and Trouble; But Your Majesties most gracious Declaration to your Council, together with the repeated Assurances you have given the Parliament, of your true Concern for our Religion, for the Laws and Liberties of England, for maintaining the Succession in the Protestant Line, and the Government in Church and State as by Law established, has given us such just Sentiments of your Goodness, and of your generous Resolutions to do every thing that may be conducive to the Welfare and Happiness of your People; That we think our selves obliged in Gratitude, as well as Duty, to assure Your Majesty, That we will also on our parts do every thing within our Power that may contribute to the Safety and Ease of your Royal Person, and the Security and Preservation of your Government, as become most thankful, affectionate, and loyal Subjects, in opposition to all the wicked Contrivances of your open and secret Enemies, whose malicious Attempts we heartily pray may always be disappointed.

And we beseech Almighty God, That Your Majesty may enjoy a long Life, that your generous Undertakings may be Successful, and that your Reign over us may be Happy and Prosperous.

Given under our Common Seal the 21st day of March, in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1701.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, most humbly beg leave to express the great Sense we have of the Loss these Nations lately sustained in the Death of that Great King, Your Majesties Predecessor, which we believe could never have been made up to us but by the immediate Succession of Your Majesty to these Tirones.

The late Gracious and Comfortable Assurances Your Majesty hath given to us, and all your Subjects, in your Declaration to your Council, and your late Speech to both Houses of Parliament, hath filled our Minds with Ease, Security and Satisfaction, and left us without any further Thought how to make our selves more Happy or Secure, unless we can add to it by a most Religious and Profound Loyalty to Your Majesty.

Our Returns therefore to Your Majesty shall always be a stedfast Loyalty, a chearful Obedience, our Hearts and Affections, our Fortunes, our Lives, shall be constantly and entirely at Your Majesties Service, like honest English Men, and Lovers of You, our Great and Gracious Princess and Sovereign, to Assist, Defend, and Support Your Majesties Person and Government, against the late pretended Prince of Wales, and all Your Majesties Opposers and Enemies whomsoever, both at home and abroad; and shall daily pray for Your Majesties long Life, and prosperous Reign over us.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty;

WE Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply ſenſible of the great Loſs the Nation has ſuſtained by the Death of that incomparable Prince King William; cannot without the greateſt remorſe reflect upon it, nor yet without the higheſt Ingratitude defer paying that Grateful Reſpect which is juſtly due to his ſacred Aſhes, whoſe Memory will always be Glorious in the Annals of Fame. But how great reaſon have we to mitigate our Sorrow, and turn it into Joy, while we behold Your Sacred Majeſty happily Seated on the Throne, whereby You are become Defender of that Holy Faith which hitherto you have ſo vigorouſly aſſerted. Your hearty Concern for the true Religion and eſtabliſhed Church, was well known in the worſt of Times; and the freſh Aſſurances the Nation has of your Defending it now, hath left no room for Infidelity it ſelf to queſtion the Zeal of Queen Anne.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMong the repeated Acclamations and exalted Joy of Your Majeſties People in general, there are none (after the Loſs we have ſuſtained) who more unfeignedly Congratulate Your Majeſties happy and opportune Acceſſion to your undoubted Right, the Throne of England, than we Your Majeſties ſaid Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who hereby in all Humility crave leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity to your Sacred Perſon and Government, and of our utmoſt Endeavours to Support and Defend Your Majeſty in the ſame againſt all Pretences and Pretenders, and againſt all former and future Machinations whatſoever.
